ERA 'Bribe offer' delays vote

The Equal Rights Amendment is believed to have come within two votes of garnering three-fifths support in the Illinois House last week, but bribe allegations are delaying a ratification vote—probably until fall and possibly until the 1981 legislative session.

Official investigations of the allegations have been started.

State Rep. Thomas Hanahan (D, McHenry), an ERA foe, said Thursday he would testify under oath that Rep. Gary Hannig (D, Mount Olive) told him the previous day of being offered campaign funds if Hannig would vote for ratification.

"The statement he made was that he would receive $5,000 now and $5,000 later for voting yes on ERA," Hanahan alleged. House Assistant Majority Leader Rep. Monroe Flinn (D, Cahokia), a Granite City Steel employee, said Hannig told him Hannig could get "upwards to $10,000" for his reelection campaign.

Rep. Hannig said, "I don't recall ever telling them that. I haven't"

EPA Who can assess fines?

Fines in excess of $20,000 are being sought by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency against Granite City Steel, it was indicated at a Madison County Circuit Court hearing. Who has the authority to assess such fines is being debated.

The EPA dropped its injunction request that had been filed to stop operation of GC Steel coke ovens, noting that a tentative agreement had been worked out.

The state agency had alleged the steel firm was operating coking facilities without applying for or receiving an operating permit, and with violating the special provision of its IEPA construction permit requiring special emission-suppressing equipment during coal charging.

Agreement subsequently was reached, however, on all points except financial penalty.

Randall Robertson, GC Steel attorney, contended that fines only can be imposed by the Illinois Pollution Control Board. The state attorney general, representing the IEPA, says the court can levy fines. The IEPA seeks a fine of $20,000 plus $1,000 for each day of violation, retroactive to April 9.

Patrick J. Chesley, assistant attorney general for environmental control, said a consent decree between the parties will be filed in court this week, but argued that the

Service to community recognized

Community service was recognized by the Tri-City Bar Association Thursday evening. The group presented to Charles Hester, center in the top photo, operator of Charlie's Restaurant, the Merlin G. Hiscott Memorial Award for Hester's service—not only to the Bar Association, but to the community in general.

The selection is made annually by a special committee and the award is presented to a member of the community who is not a lawyer.

Optimism on revenue sharing, food stamps

"I don't know of any federal program in which you can see the results so quickly," Congressman Melvin Price (D, 23rd Dist.) told municipal, township and county officials at a meeting Saturday in Collinsville in voicing confidence that House and Senate majorities will support continuation of revenue sharing.

City Treasurer Nick Petrillo of Granite City said the program has particular merit because it leaves decisions in the hands of local officials and citizens.

Used for specific construction projects and to bolster police, fire and street department budgets, revenue sharing avoids the "library book's worth of red tape" involved in utilizing grants from specific federal agencies, Petrillo commented. Meanwhile, another topic of concern to residents of this area—the food stamp program—also is being described as assured of continuation. Congress on Thursday approved and sent to President Carter a $2.56 billion supplemental appropriation to keep food stamps going during the summer despite depletion of the original budget.

At Saturday's gathering sponsored by the Southwestern Illinois Conference of Mayors and held at the Madison County Firemen's Hall, Cong. Price urged local officials to continue lobbying on

Police on disability

Concern is growing in Madison over the size of the department providing police protection, residents say, and the top city official has expressed concern over the scope of the work that some current officers are doing.

In a police report to the Madison City Council submitted last week by Chief of Police Donald Braddock, the total number of arrests made, including traffic, was shown as 89 for the month of April.

Of the 89 arrests, 68 of them or 76 percent were made by three officers, a related report indicated.

However, one of the other officers said that he and another officer had personally written over 200 arrest notifications for motorists not having city vehicle stickers. These were not part of the monthly report.

Mayor Mike Sasyk commented after the council meeting when asked about the possible need for more police. "Did you see the report on the arrests being made by our police?"

"I can't see how a person can work full time for a month and not make a single arrest."

"All that some police may want to do is to see how much money they can get out of the city. Some apparently don't think enough about being active in civic affairs and serving the public," Sasyk said.

Currently Madison has 11 officers, including the chief, on the force, not counting dispatchers.

Two of the officers are off duty for an undetermined amount of time due to physical disabilities and one officer

Dunbar damage debate

A controversy arose at the Madison School Board meeting Thursday evening when Board Member Donald Garrett discussed delay in the securing of Dunbar School against vandalism. The building in West Madison is no longer used for classes.

"Garrett said there has been $30,000 in damages and thefts from Dunbar. The boarding up was only completed the day before yesterday."

"The superintendent was asked to secure the building six months ago. This is taxpayers' property. This goes to show again there is no concern on anything that happens on 'the other side of the tracks.' "I am willing to bet that six months ago there was a motion made about securing Dunbar. The taxpayers have been ripped off," Garrett concluded.

Board Member Mrs. Billie Bosworth said, "Maybe we need more personnel to do the job." Garrett replied, "Then the superintendent should have asked for more people."

School Supt. John Palchek said, after the meeting, "I do not wish to get into an argument with Mr. Garrett. All I

FOLLOWING TOO CLOSELY? If you are traveling on I-270 between the Mississippi River and Illinois 111 in the near future and are tailgating the motorist ahead, an illuminated caution sign will be activated telling you so. An automatic monitoring system was installed Thursday afternoon. Near Route 203 in the westbound lanes by two electricians of the R. Dron Electrical Co. Gary Walker and Chris Velloff use a hydraulic lift to finish one of three units being installed. Two other monitors have been placed near the Route 3 exchange on both the eastbound and westbound lanes. The system, costing $94,000, is the first to be installed in the state. Testing of the three units could begin in two weeks, but the signs will be covered while data is collected by the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Bi-State bonds for coal transfer facility

James S. Nations, acting chairman of the Bi-State Development Agency board, has announced board approval to issue $23.5 million in revenue bonds for long-term financing of the American Commercial Terminals, Inc. (ACT) coal transfer facility in North St. Louis.

Approval to issue the bonds completes an agreement between Bi-State and ACT made May 13, 1977, to finance construction of a coal transfer facility in the Port of Metropolitan St. Louis.

Bi-State serves as the coordinating authority for the port. The agency is managing by its compact to issue revenue bonds for construction of private facilities to encourage economic development within the metropolitan area.

The American Commercial Terminals coal transfer facility, located on Hall Street at the Mississippi River, is designed to receive low-sulfur coal by train from coal fields in western states and transfer the coal to barges for shipment on the Mississippi River to utilities in the South. The facility receives three 40-car coal trains a day.

The project cost $32.6 million to construct and has been in operation since July 1979.

By issuing tax-exempt revenue bonds to finance the transfer facility instead of higher-interest commercial loans, Bi-State helped enable it to be built. The agency receives a yearly management fee for handling the bonds.

The ACT transfer site provides employment for area residents, tax revenue for the City of St. Louis and increased activity within the Port of Metropolitan St. Louis, a spokesman said.

Board OKs rezoning

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals is recommending that the Madison County Board rezone about five acres of land on Elliott Lane near Route 162 from agricultural to an R-2 single-family residential district.

The request was made by Leo and Fannie Kamaulski, who also asked for a variance to develop land in a flood hazard area. The recommendation followed an on-site public hearing. The zoning board postponed a hearing at 3217 Lakeview Drive, where Cornelio Ybarra Jr. was requesting a special use permit to raise four or five dogs. Ybarra failed to post the notice of the public hearing on the site, as required by county ordinance, so the hearing had to be rescheduled, county officials said.

Anti-inflation ballot boxes at Schnucks

The campaign will be stepped up on May 24 and May 31, when volunteers will be at the stores to explain the ballots and encourage citizen participation.

The ballots ask for a commitment to the following: elimination of deficit financing, restriction of personal credit, reduced demand for government regulation, increased personal productivity and conservation of energy.

The goal of the anti-inflation program is to collect and tabulate a million ballots by October 1980. It is hoped that the response

The two-hour concert will begin at 12:30 p.m. in Goshen Lounge in the University Center, sponsored by the student organization, Women for Women.

A veteran musician, she has appeared in night clubs and coffee houses in her native Champaign and throughout the country at political rallies and benefits. She was one of the originators of the International Women's Music Festival at the University of Illinois, an annual event since 1974.

Her music blends folk sounds with political statements about feminism, nuclear power, racism and other political issues. Her "Ballad of the ERA" has become the theme song of the ratification movement, especially in Illinois.

In addition to being a musician, she holds a master's degree in Middle Eastern studies and taught English in Iran for a year. She sometimes sings in Persian or Hebrew.

behalf of revenue sharing. About 65 attended.

Ronald Davinroy of O'Fallon, the Republican nominee for Congress, voiced support for revenue sharing and said its name should be changed.

"Federal revenue sharing sounds as though it doesn't belong to us, but it's our tax money," he commented.

Re-enactment of the legislation would mean five more years of revenue sharing, estimated at $4.56 billion in the share for local-level governments. States also receive shared revenue from the U.S.

Bethalto Mayor Erwin Plegge stressed that revenue sharing is one of the few federal programs having little administrative cost and allowing local control.

Fred Dalton of the Madison County Board told the gathering, "This is money that should come back to us." Belleville Mayor Richard Braver contended that "we have proven to the federal government that we can handle these funds on a local level."

Larry Frang of the Illinois Municipal League said reductions proposed by Pres. Carter would eliminate state revenue sharing but continue most of the local funding. However, the $116 million Illinois state reduction would seriously affect elementary and high schools, he added.

Cong. Price said the fund debate is scheduled for this fall.

done anything wrong. I don't know why they are trying to spotlight me."

On Tuesday, he said he planned to vote against ratification. On Wednesday afternoon, he said he was reconsidering and might vote for it because of an "avalanche of pro-ERA calls and letters" from his district, the 49th. On Thursday, after Hanahan spoke out, Hannig said he definitely will vote on the ERA. Hanahan urged investigation of rumors that television producer Norman Lear has provided $200,000 to help foster passage of the ERA. Thirty-five of the needed 38 states have ratified the women's rights amendment, and the new deadline is 1982.

Green light for new Venice apartments

A spokesman for Sansone Realty Co. of St. Louis, developer of a proposed multi-family housing project in Venice, said his office received official notification in today's mail of preliminary federal approval of the project.

Jane Erickson, an aide to Congressman Melvin Price, told the Press-Record Cong. Price's office has received verbal word that it has been approved.

John Biechman of the federal Housing and Urban Development Department (HUD), liaison officer with the Illinois division of HUD, called the congressman's office late Thursday afternoon with word of the May 8 departmental decision.

Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols said today, "I have not yet heard one way or the other, but I am confident the plan will be approved."

W. A. Thomas and Co. of St. Louis, consultants on the project, has received no notification.

Bill Thomas, president of the company, said, "I expect to hear soon from Anthony Sansone, the developer."

The original project called for 137 housing units, and the revised plan calls for 92 apartments.

Authority to proceed with a housing study in Venice was given to W. A. Thomas and Co. of St. Louis by the Venice City Council at a meeting Jan. 2, 1979.

The housing units will be located on city-owned property (8.9 acres) at the intersection of Klein and Bissell streets, formerly owned by Johns Manville Corp.

The City of Madison withdrew its objections to the project on April 29 this year, and the Madison School Board withdrew objections April 17. They earlier voiced concern that the project might cause a financial burden on the Madison School District.

Studies indicate now that 90 percent or more of the occupants will come from families already residing in the Madison district.

A meeting will be called between representatives of Venice, Thomas, Sansone and HUD officials to discuss any restrictions and work out a timetable for the construction.

2 GUITARS TAKEN

An $1,800 Gibson sunburst Firebird guitar, a $200 Fender Telecaster, and a $100 Fender Stratocaster were stolen from the 18th Street Lounge, Larry Stewart, the owner of the guitars, reported last week. He said he sang in the lounge May 12 and then returned to play days later to find the guitars were gone.

Murray was on his way to work and collided with the auto of Stephen A. Stamps, 33, of 509 Lakeview Drive. The road was engulfed in fog at the time of the accident and the Stamps vehicle was traveling eastbound and had crossed over into the other lane that Mr. Murray was traveling in a westbound direction.

Mr. Murray was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he said the Stamps car came out of the fog and he did not see it in time as there were no lights showing.

Mr. Murray had a 4-inch vertical laceration on the left cheek and had severe pain in the abdomen and pelvic area when admitted to the emergency room of the hospital at 6:15 a.m. He was pronounced dead there at 8:25 a.m.

Stamps sustained minor injuries and was not hospitalized, according to the county police report.

Mr. Murray was born in Venice and was a lifelong resident of the Quad Cities.

He was employed as a sheetmetal worker through the St. Louis Local 36.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Terrie (Price) Murray; seven children, Tracy Dilluge, Chana Murray, Harvey Murray Jr., Tommy Murray, Matthew Murray, Robert Dilluge and Danny Sullivan, all at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie (Viola) Murray, Ava, Ill.; two brothers, Bob Murray, Granite City, and Tommie Murray, Indianapolis, Ind.; three sisters, Mrs. Tommie (Johnie) Aubrazeau, Bloomington, Miss.; Mrs. Carol Grimes, St. Peters, Mo.; and Mrs. Bill (Helen) Murray, Beaverton, Mich.

Community to honor Venice educator

By VALERIE EVENED

of the Press-Record

Anna McKinney Spencer will conclude 31 years as an educator when she retires from her position as principal of Venice Grade School at the end of the current school year.

Mrs. Spencer has spent her entire teaching and administrative career in the Venice School District.

Not only has her professional life been focused on the school children of Venice, but she has virtually spent her own life, at least to this phase, in the same system.

As a child and young woman Mrs. Spencer attended elementary and high school in the district that has claimed her total attention as an educator for three decades.

To honor her on the occasion of her retirement, the Venice School District is arranging a special tribute in recognition of her years of dedication and service.

The program is scheduled at 3:30 p.m. Friday, May 23, in the Venice High School gymnasium.

All friends and former students will be welcome at the event, according to Althea A. Cross, Title VII director, who is among those responsible for planning the program.

After graduating from Lincoln High School in Venice, now Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, Mrs. Spencer enrolled at Illinois State University at Normal from where she received a bachelor's degree.

Later, she earned a master's degree at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana. Since then she also has completed additional work at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Mrs. Spencer returned to Lincoln Elementary School in Venice as a teacher in 1949 and taught fourth grade pupils for a period of 18 years.

She was promoted to grade school principal at Lincoln in 1966.

Shortly afterward, the Lincoln and Venice elementary schools were merged and Mrs. Spencer was appointed assistant principal of the combined schools.

She was named principal of Venice Grade School in 1968.

"I've enjoyed my 31 years of service and will always cherish my memories of the lovely people in Venice," Mrs. Spencer said this week.

After the school year is over, she is planning to live in Toledo, Ohio, where her husband, Alfred, has established a home.

During Friday's program, presentations will be made to Mrs. Spencer by Robert N. Vickers, Venice superintendent of schools; John Rush, principal of Venice High School, on behalf of district employees; and Charlotte Dilday, representing Venice teacher aides, among other presentations.

Robert Blattner, Title I coordinator and mathematics teacher, will serve as master of ceremonies.

A former Venice teacher, the Rev. Norman E. Owens, pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church, East St. Louis, will offer the invocation and benediction.

Mrs. Rogers Mefford, a Title VII teacher, will sing, "The Way We Were." She is the daughter of a former principal of the school.

Other musical renditions will be presented by Miss Williemenia Watts, singing "The Greatest Love of All," and Darnice Franklin, a former Venice student, who will sing "If I Can Help Somebody."

Mrs. Cross will introduce various guests attending the tribute. Sims Reeves, a third grade teacher, will read an appropriate poem, "Silent Impressions," written by Rev. Owens.

A segment of the program, entitled "Reflections," will focus on different aspects of Mrs. Spencer's life.

Her student years will be reviewed by Helen Petty and Carolyn May, formerly teachers on the staff of the retiring principal.

Of special emphasis will be remarks by the honoree's daughter, Mrs. Margaret Smith, who is a teacher at Jefferson Grade School, St. Louis.

Sequences also will feature contributions from George Cross, assistant principal of Vashon High School, St. Louis, who attended ISU with Mrs. Spencer and began his teaching career at Lincoln School the same year as the honoree.

ANNA SPENCER

Others on the program will include Willie Wallis of the Urban League, a former student, and Junetta White, a former Venice teacher now at Hanley Junior High School, University City, who will present a musical background.

Awarded $9,338 in stapling suit

Rose A. Chadeayne of East Carondelet, who said she gained weight and an infection after having her ears stapled in a weight reduction effort, was awarded $9,338 Thursday by a Madison County Circuit Court jury.

The woman filed a lawsuit in 1977 against Dr. Thomas J. Clay, a Granite City chiropractor, alleging that medical personnel at a St. Louis clinic Dr. Clay operated did not properly treat her after she developed an infection.

The jury ruled that Clay had acted properly and rejected a settlement Mrs. Chadeayne had sought "in excess of $15,000."

Rick Rosen of Fairview Heights, Mrs. Chadeayne's lawyer, said the $9,338 verdict was for medical treatment for the infection and the discomfort it had caused her.

Mrs. Chadeayne said she had received "auricular therapy," a form of acupuncture in which staples are stuck in the upper inside of the ears to reduce appetite.

She didn't lose weight, but gained a little and got an ear infection that required the lancing of the infected area and a skin graft to the ear, Mrs. Chadeayne said.

MONEY STOLEN

Sandy Becker Worden, an employee at the Mental Health Clinic, reported that an unknown amount of money was taken from her wallet in her desk Friday.

E. ST. LOUIS MEN

ARRESTED HERE

Granite City police assisted the security guard at Nations Lead, Terra Corp., at 2:35 a.m. Saturday in a chase through the plant grounds for two East St. Louis men found trespassing.

Jonah Gordon, 29, and Ben Gordon, 30, were arrested on a complaint signed by the plant manager. They were both released at 4:20 a.m. on $35 bonds.

Vandals hit sewer, pipe cleaning firm

Twenty-six 12x15-inch windows at the M. J. Stamps Sewer and Pipe Cleaning firm, 1501 Grand Ave., were smashed by vandals, it was reported to authorities Thursday.

Additionally, the windshield, side and rear door windows of a 1976 van were broken and the locking mechanisms and knobs of doors to the building were damaged.

Pieces of brick, slag and concrete were found inside the building, a company spokesman said.

VANDALIZED AGAIN. The offices of the Stamps Sewer and Pipe Cleaning Co., 1501 Grand Ave., were vandalized Wednesday evening by throwing large rocks through 26 windows and two door windows in the building and six of nine windows of a van parked outside the offices. Above, the passenger door window of the van is smashed with spider web cracks in the windshield seen through it. At right is the southeast corner of the building with several of the broken windows visible at left and in the door at right. This is the 15th vandalism of the offices since December of 1979. A $500 reward is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible. (Press-Record photos by Pat Foley)

Chase with auto damages five cars

Police were dispatched to the 3400 block of 13th Lane at 11:35 a.m. Saturday to help subdue a 19-year-old woman who was said to have a knife in her possession and was chasing a neighbor man. When the police arrived an ambulance was at the scene, as the young woman drove off locked herself in a car in the garage and was said to be slashing her wrist. While one police officer was trying to talk her into opening the door, another officer was trying to open the passenger door.

Services for Omer Smith, 67

Funeral services were held Saturday at Doniphan, Mo., for Omer D. Smith, 67, of 2313 E. 23rd St., who died Wednesday, May 14, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he had been a patient since suffering injuries in a head-on collision April 23. Illinois State Police said Mr. Smith was driving the wrong way, south in the northbound lanes of South University Drive about a half-mile north of Illinois 157, near Edwardsville, when the accident occurred.

Two cars swerved to avoid Mr. Smith's vehicle, which crashed head-on into an auto driven by the Rev. Edward Crite, 51, of Edwardsville, police said.

Rev. Crite, pastor of Assembly of God Church in Rosewood Heights, is in satisfactory condition at Oliver C. Anderson Hospital, Maryville.

Mr. Smith, a retired truck driver, had resided here 40 years. He was a native of Doniphan.

Among the survivors are two sons, Carl David Smith of Granite City and Jimmie D. Smith of Caseyville; a daughter, Mrs. Royall (Betty) Brooks of Granite City; nine brothers and sisters; and 10 grandchildren.

She started the car, began racing the motor and then put the car in reverse, running over a gaslight in the front yard. The car then went forward, hitting the southeast corner of the garage, and drove through a neighbor's yard onto Lydia Lane, hitting the parked car of Bradley Shemwell.

The driver then made a right turn onto Johnson Road, forcing some cars off the street, and at the intersection of Johnson and Nameoki roads her auto struck the back of an auto driven by JoAnn Burckly, 2586 Spalding Ave., forcing the car across Nameoki Road on a red light.

With police cars in pursuit, the woman continued her erratic driving along Fehling Road, forcing cars off the road. An officer pulled alongside and she sped up then applied the brakes, causing the officer to pull to the left to avoid hitting her. As the woman continued toward Benton Street, another officer was approaching 27th Street going northbound to head her off. She drove toward the front of the squad car, causing him to swerve and spin the patrol car in the street in an effort to miss her.

She hit the auto of Teresa Johnson, 1 Frontenac Drive, who had pulled over to the side of the street at 27th and Benton streets.

The woman being pursued by police continued the wrong way on Benton 25th Street, made a right turn and proceeded to the railroad tracks at a high rate of speed. At the tracks, she drove off into a gully between the tracks and hit an embankment.

Officers broke the left rear window to unlock the driver's door and pulled the woman out and away from the auto, as it was smoking and they thought it might explode.

An ambulance and fire truck were called and the ambulance transported the woman to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where she was treated at 12:12 p.m. for abrasions under the right eye, nose and left shoulder and slashes on the wrists. She was later taken to an Alton hospital, where it was learned she was a patient there and on a pass to be home for the weekend.

Ten traffic violations were issued as a result of the incident. Patrolman Robert Krause was treated at the local hospital at 12:21 p.m. for pain to the right side of his neck and was released. Also treated and released were Mrs. Burckly and a passenger in her car, Mrs. Ethel Beeler, 2590 Spalding Ave.

Both police squad cars were damaged in the chase, as well as the three vehicles of residents mentioned.

Never on Friday during summer at main BAC campus

Belleville Area College's main campus will be closed on Fridays beginning this week. May 23 will be the first Friday that the campus at 2500 Carlyle Road will close in its continuing energy conservation program.

All classes at BAC are to be taught Monday through Thursday during the summer.

Administrators and office personnel will schedule their hours for the four-day week going to work at 7 a.m. and leaving at 5 p.m.

These efforts have been estimated to save the college more than $20,000 each summer in utility costs since the buildings are not cooled from Thursday evening until early Monday morning.

Registration, discontinued from May 19-26, will resume on May 27.

Contrary to the schedule of classes which was printed earlier in the semester, the registration office will remain open until 8 p.m. May 27, 28 and 29 and June 2, 3 and 4.

Summer classes, both day and evening, will begin June 9.

NW more profitable

Even though the national recession will affect earnings this year, Norfolk and Western Railway President John P. Fishwick informed stockholders at the railroad's annual meeting in mid-May that "we are now operating at a new and higher level of profitability than we did 10 years ago."

Merchandise loadings in April were down 15 percent from last year, he said, and "May isn't looking any better. Our automobile business has been hit hardest, and that's important business for us."

Offsetting this decline, Fishwick said, "will be our strong coal loadings for the remainder of the year." He advised stockholders that the railroad's coal business should improve over last year, when NW handled 82 million tons, and that "beginning in 1981 I can see nothing but good news as far as coal is concerned."

He attributed this prospect to a strong export market, a rising demand for utility coal, and a growth in metallurgical coal demand when the recession ends.

Fishwick had good news for NW's retirees.

Saying that inflation was as much a problem for dividends as for the railroad, he announced that pension payments will be increased by a quarter of one percent for each month of retirement before January 1980, with a ceiling of 30 percent.

"We believe," he said, "that this higher payment will help to offset the damage that inflation inflicts upon those with fixed retirement incomes."

GC actors in play cast

One of the most elegant stages ever designed for the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville theater will be unveiled when "Present Laughter," a light British comedy, is presented May 28-30. The cast includes Dan McGee and Rebecca Vartan, both of Granite City.

Lynn Kluth, director of the play and professor of view, this show will probably be one of the most elaborate and modern sets we have ever designed. The characters in the play are wealthy. When the full stage lights go up, I think the audience will go ahh."

The play, written by Noel Coward, focuses on a romantic, talented actor nearing the age of 40. It looks at his foibles as he tries to maintain his youth, and his friends' handling of the problem.

"The characters are a mixed batch of weirdos and highly sophisticated, charming and fun people," said Kluth. "There is no message for the audience or moral judgment. It is high style, light entertainment."

Ticket reservations can be made for "Present Laughter" by calling Kluth at 692-2320 or the theater department at 692-2773. Ticket prices are $1 for SIUE students, $2 for high school students, $2.50 for senior citizens and $5 for others.

Confiscate guns at apartment

Five weapons, some loaded with shells, were among items confiscated at 12:05 p.m. Thursday. Officers went to the apartment of James Buddy Clubb, 62, at 2260 State St., to ask the occupant to come to police headquarters for an interview related to the investigation of another matter.

While in the dwelling, officers alleged, they saw several weapons which Clubb said had been left as collateral by men to whom he had loaned money.

Removed by officers were a 22 caliber rifle, loaded with 17 shells; two 20 gauge shotguns, one loaded with a shell; a 16 gauge shotgun with a black and yellow carrying case; and a 22 caliber blue steel revolver containing 17 live rounds.

Also taken from the apartment by police were a four-cell flashlight and a triple-beam balance scale with a carrying case.

Clubb was booked on state charges—theft and not having a firearm owner identification card.

Chiefs to honor 2

Donald and Jeanette Ballard, who assisted Granite City police in capturing two 17-year-olds who spray painted "GC Pig City '79" on the east side of the new Granite City police building July 29, 1979, will be honored during the monthly meeting of the Southern Illinois Chiefs of Police Association here at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

The meeting, hosted by Granite City Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer, will be at Charlie's Restaurant.

The Ballards were in front of the Granite City Post Office when they saw a youth spray painting on the new building. Ballard walked up to him while his wife drove to the other side of the building to alert police.

The youth fled toward a car where another youth waited and they left without headlights. Ballard chased him to the auto and when the youth being chased grabbed the door handle of the car, the driver left, dragging the youth beside the auto until he fell off.

The youth got up and ran until Ballard caught him at 24th Street and Grand Avenue. The driver of the auto later was arrested at his home. They were charged with criminal damage to property.

Chief Veizer praised the Ballards for not being afraid to get involved and for assisting the police in the apprehensions.

Volunteers' parents tour St. Elizabeth Medical Center

St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Candy Stripper parent orientation night was "rated a success," Pat Musick, Candy Stripper supervisor, said. "Parents seemed enthusiastic and interested," she added.

The orientation program began with speakers welcoming the parents and explaining the types of duties the Candy Stripper volunteers have at the hospital.

"Many parents were surprised to find out how much their children do in their work here," Pat Musick said. "They didn't realize, for example, that Candy Strippers do clerical work in the X-ray Department, transport patients, and write up sheets for laboratory technicians."

Parents were shown a sound and slide show that traced the history of SEMC from its beginning in 1904 to the present time. She commented, "Many weren't aware of how closely St. Elizabeth ties in with the history of Granite City."

The parents next were given a tour, allowing them an opportunity to see the departments where their children work. Staff members from the various departments showed them around and answered questions.

Later, refreshments were served and parents shared their reactions to the orientation night. One father said he had been a patient several times and "really hadn't wanted to attend" but was glad he did because he learned much.

Another parent said he used to become irritated if he had to wait for treatment in the emergency room, but care to say is that the building was secured as soon as physically possible."

Another board member after the meeting said that, although there has been damage to the empty building, the $30,000 figure is "way out of line," adding that when the district tried to sell the building and contents the highest bid was only $5,000.

Still another board member said, after the meeting, that he would conservatively estimate damage done at Dunbar as at least $20,000.

A damage estimate made two weeks ago, after police caught two thieves inside the building, was $10,000 to the building and $10,000 to contents, such as copper tubing that had been taken out of the building, and kitchen fixtures.

A report made to the board indicated that a study undertaken by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Area Planning Commission in regard to possible disposition of Dunbar School will be completed in about two weeks.

The cost of the study, $729, is being shared by the cities of Madison and Venice, Venice Township and the school district.

The City of Madison and the Madison School Board approved conducting the study seven months ago (Oct. 4, 1979) but, according to a school spokesman, SIMARPC did not start the study until just a few days ago, as the agency had not heard from the City of Venice or Venice Township.

However, there are some who say that despite the limited numbers, the department is sufficiently flexible and skilled to make up for the absence of those with disabilities. The departmental report for April 1980 noted a 5.4 percent decrease in crimes compared to April 1979.

Rotarians study police problems, procedures

The Madison-Venice Rotary Club last week received an "inside look" into the many problems police can encounter while on what is termed "routine patrol."

Madison Police Officer Frank Papa introduced a police training film on patrol procedures.

Rotarian "Mick" Strange, program chairman, spoke briefly on the need for citizens' support of local police and for awareness of what is going on around them.

Strange urged that citizens call the police to check out anything a person feels is "out of place" in the neighborhood.

Rotarian and Police Officer Thomas Voloski warned businessmen to be aware of strangers coming into their stores.

Officer Voloski referred to a band of "gypsies." He said members of the group pass through this area regularly and conduct fake roofing repair and other schemes. They also enter stores in large numbers, distracting clerks while others in the group take items.

Voloski said these people do not dress like the "movie version" of gypsies. He also cautioned merchants that as the economy gets tighter and more and more layoffs occur, past trends indicate that thefts will increase.

It was noted that the best defense against thefts from stores is alert sales people.

For her wedding, the former Miss Sasyk selected a gown of ivory English net and re-embroidered Alencon lace featuring an empire neckline and lace applied fitted bodice. The cap sleeves were enhanced with ivory silk satin buttercup motifs.

From the natural waistline the full flowing English net skirt fell into a deep border of Alencon lace, scattered with satin buttercup appliques which were repeated on the cathedral train.

FLOYD TAYLOR

Floyd Taylor marks 90 years

Floyd Taylor, 2231 E. 23rd St., was guest of honor at a party given last week in observance of his 90th birthday.

He has resided at his present address for 59 years. His wife, Carrie Sheppard, died Jan. 6, 1964. She considered it a tradition to serve strawberries for his birthday and this was remembered for this occasion by his family.

Mr. Taylor was born in Alhambra, Ill., and attended school there and in Venice. He began at approximately age 12 carrying ice for his brother Frank who had his own ice and coal business in Venice.

Later the honoree started his own ice and coal business in 1925 and was a charter member of Teamsters Local. He also held employment at various factories in the Quad-City area prior to his retirement Nov. 1, 1959.

Mr. Taylor's hobbies are seasonal as he takes pride in keeping his friend and neighbor's yards mowed as well as his own. He still uses the old push type mower and in the winter months he also keeps the steps and walks clear of snow for both homes.

The birthday honoree is a great fan of the St. Louis baseball Cardinals and never misses a radio or television, according to a family spokesman.

The family added that Mr. Taylor has a great memory for events concerning old Granite City when much of it was still farmland. He first delivered ice through the area by horse and wagon and has retained many stories of that era and the residents, they added.

Mr. Taylor has three children, Mrs. Arthur (Helen) LaVelle, Granite City, Ralph Taylor, Alexandria, Va., and Mrs. Sidney (LaVerne) Strotheide, Collinsville.

He also has 12 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. A son born to Mr. and Mrs. R. Ernest Taylor, Athens, Ga., on Feb. 15, of this year and named Hamilton Hunt Taylor, is the latest great-grandchild.

Guests attending the event included Mrs. Rex Spurrer, Mrs. Joy Wofford and son, Eric, Jack Schmetter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LaVelle, Mrs. Carol Newman Edwards, Mrs. George Poole and Mrs. Sidney Strotheide, of Collinsville and Ralph Taylor of Alexandria, Va.

Protem officers for the evening were Isabelle Dieckman as Adah, Dorothy Watkins as chaplain and Donna Kazy as Marshal.

A memorial service was conducted for the late Alfred Krusiek, a chapter member.

Lloyd Lewis was welcomed back after undergoing heart surgery, and it was noted Frances Williams celebrated her birthday since the previous meeting.

Worthy Patron John Boyer extended appreciation to Mary Bilbrey as secretary and Arline Fox, treasurer, for their work as chapter officers.

Mrs. French, associate matron and Orvin Dieckman, associate patron, hosted a surprise shower for Mr. and Mrs. Boyer. The honorees received baskets filled with gifts on behalf of the officers and members.

Bowls of daisies centered the dining tables and each one received a small flower container with a white daisy as a favor. Prizes were awarded to Betty Kelso, Mrs. Dieckman, Mrs. Williams and Avis Joiner.

Committee for the evening was Dona and John Boyer, Bonnie and Jerry Fisher, Betty McClintock, Mary Bilbrey, Arline Tadlock and Mary Hancock.

Art Guild to view

tole rose painting

The meeting will convene at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, and area residents interested in art are invited to attend, Mrs. Meadows added.

Mrs. Butlers introduction to painting was through tole painting in 1953 in Overland Park, Kan. She also works in acrylics and water colors, her favorite medium.

She studied water colors under the direction of James Godwin Scott and presently gives individual lessons in roses with a specialty in roses.

Arrested for mowing lawn (at 1:45 a.m.)

You can be arrested for mowing your lawn, especially if it is at 1:45 in the morning, a Granite City man learned today.

Police were called to the home of Archie Milan, 50, of 2130 Bryan Ave., on a report that a gasoline-powered lawn mower was disturbing neighbors attempting to sleep at 1:45 a.m. today. Officers alleged Milan was mowing his lawn.

They ordered him to turn off the mower and discontinue mowing until a reasonable hour. He agreed and the officers left, they reported.

About 10 minutes later, Milan's neighbors reported the mower was running again and when officers responded, they found him in the back yard with the mower running, they alleged.

Milan went in his house when a police car approached, but left the mower running at full power in the back yard, it was alleged. Officers turned the mower off and arrested Milan.

He was charged with disorderly conduct and was released at 2:45 a.m. today on a $35 cash bond.

Accident on State street

Gary Robinson, 27, of 4605 Kirkpatrick Homes, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, early Saturday morning following an accident at 15th and State streets. Police found him slumped over the steering wheel of his car, which was against a metal billboard. Robinson apparently missed the curve and drove through an oil company lot, hitting an SMX Motor Express trailer, and stopped after reaching the billboard. He was admitted to the hospital with bruises to the forehead.

Statue of the Sacred Heart gets new site

A construction worker's job is not always a straightforward matter of blueprints and masonry. Sometimes there's a job to be done for which there are no plans to follow.

Construction workers at St. Elizabeth Medical Center had such a challenge Thursday when they moved a statue of the Sacred Heart from its temporary home behind the lab to its permanent place in the courtyard outside the Pastoral Care Department in the new

A worker rode on the front of the lift, holding the statue steady, as the forklift inched along the rough terrain of the construction site. At last, the statue arrived at its destination (top right picture), but the job was not over. The statue had to be lowered to its concrete foundation, turned clockwise 45 degrees so that the corners of the statue base would match up with the corners of the foundation.

With scrap lumber, the workers devised a system of supports and levers that allowed them to set the statue square on its new foundation.

Standing in its new home (lower right), the statue of the Sacred Heart is "a symbol of religious significance and an example of how cooperation, skill and human ingenuity can combine to meet a challenge," a spokesman commented.

Orderly restoration of property pledged

Complaints that crews making restorations to property from construction of sanitary sewers in Namooki, Chouteau and Venice townships are treating property owners unfairly are premature, Louis Whitsell, chairman of the county's special sewer committee, is contending. Some residents whose property was torn up for construction of the sewers have complained that construction crews have just left piles of dirt in their yards, presumably for the property owner to spread and seed. In other yards, however, they complained, the work crews have spread the dirt and completed the reseeding of the lawns, according to Whitsell.

He said the contractor has a list of properties to be restored and will restore each yard before the project is completed. Frequently, the dirt is dumped in a yard and left there, until the crews arrive to spread it, he added.

If homeowners wish to spread the dirt themselves, the help will be welcomed, but it is not necessary, Whitsell explained.

He said he has received a letter from S. M. Wilson, contractor for the sewer project, that the sewers could be operating by July 28, if power to the lift stations is provided in time by Illinois Power Co. and Union Electric Co.

Bad weather also could delay the date the sewers can be operational, the letter warned.

Some work will be necessary even after the sewers are operational, Whitsell said. One project yet to be undertaken is the rebuilding of about six lots in the 2100 block of Harrison Avenue, where the construction crews raised the level of the property about six inches at the request of Nameoki Township Highway Commissioner Frank Mehelic.

Neighbors objected that raising the level of the property destroyed the existing drainage system, so that water no longer flows from their property.

The contractor has agreed to restore the property to its original level and condition, Whitsell said.

Another project yet to be undertaken is construction of an $83,422 lift station to serve the Quiet Valley Subdivision of Pontoon Beach. A change order adding the lift station to the project was approved by the sewer committee recently.

Originally, planners felt that the owners of the existing lift station at the lagoon would be responsible for providing an adequate lift station, but the committee later discovered that the village of Pontoon Beach owns the lagoon and cannot be required to install an adequate lift station for the county, so the county will have to provide one, Whitsell explained.

DAMAGE IS CHARGED

A felony warrant charging criminal damage to property was filed Thursday against Michael Nikonowicz, 18, who listed no home address, after the Madison County state's attorney's office issued an information document. It is alleged that a plate glass window was broken at a Madison Avenue business.

Motorist hits moving train

Isabelle R. Allen, 63, of 2708 W. 20th St., was issued a ticket for disobeying a railroad signal after she collided with a train on the West 22nd Street tracks. She told authorities she saw a train in the distance and went around gates, and did not see another train until she collided with it. The trainman, Joe Gray of Beller City, Ill., said he sounded the horn and bell. The driver escaped apparent injury.

Warriors advance three to 'AA' state meet

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

BELLEVILLE — They finally got the Belleville East AA District track meet started here Saturday. After a one-day rain delay and showers Saturday morning, the sun finally came out. Especially for the East St. Louis Lincoln Tigers.

Lincoln bumped off powerhouse East St. Louis Senior for the team title 79-64. It was no easy task, either. East Side had won the last seven district championships and four of the last five state Class AA championships. East St. Louis Senior was followed by Alton with 33 points, Belleville East with 19 points and Granite City South with 15. Granite City North finished 11th.

Granite South advanced three athletes to the state finals, next weekend at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston. Dave Houston outran the field for first place in the 1,600 meter (mile) run. Steve Adams finished second in the pole vault and Mike Konzen was second in the shot put.

Houston, according to south head coach Mel Bunting, probably has the best chance of doing well in the state finals of his three qualifiers. "Dave has the potential to do very, very well," said Bunting. "His time (4:19.3) wasn't actually a surprise, but it was very, very pleasant."

"At state, the pace will be much faster. But I think that'll help Dave. Besides, the fans in the stands there get really excited about the mile and two mile runs. When a runner gets the crowd behind him, yelling, that has a lot to do with it."

The runner from Southern Illinois Houston will have to watch for at Charleston will be Moun Vernon's Nick Whiteside. "Dave has beaten Whiteside in the mile," said Bunting. "Whiteside's strength is really in the two mile."

Houston's winning time in the mile run stands as a South school record. The old mark of 4:21.5 was set in 1975 by Duane Terry.

That Adams qualified for the state finals didn't come as a surprise to Bunting, either. His leap of 13-0 feet in the pole vault was as well as he's done all season. But it wasn't good enough for first place. That was taken by Bunting's Whiteside at 13-6. One of the top vaulters in the area, Adams could nonetheless be hard-pressed to place at the state meet.

"Honestly, 13 feet might not get him (Adams) anything," said Bunting.

"But I've seen vaulters who usually go 16 feet get up to state and not do anything under the pressure."

Adams also stood a chance of qualifying in the 300 meter low hurdles. But because of the timing of the event with the pole vault, Adams was dog-tired when he ran it. "He had just tried three straight times at 13-6 in the vault," said Bunting. "By the time he ran the hurdles, he was just too tired."

According to Bunting, Adams has broken 13-4 in practice, but has never gone over 13-0 in a meet.

Konzen also qualified for state with a second-place finish. His toss of 53.3 meters was a personal best. "I like the way Mike approaches things," said Bunting. "I've told him not to wait until the last throw to try his best. That puts too much pressure on you."

Konzen got his qualifying distance on his first attempt. There was one runner who didn't qualify for state Bunting was as pleased with as he was the qualifiers.

"Drew Geisler ran a 1:37.5 in the 800 meter run," he said. "He was running second with about 10 yards to go, but stumbled when he went all out for the finish. That makes me as happy as if he'd qualified."

Lincoln wins third straight girls title

Special to the Press-Record

CHARLESTON — The East St. Louis Lincoln girls track captured its third straight team championship here Saturday in the annual Illinois State Class AA Track and Field Meet, held at Eastern Illinois University.

Lincoln easily out-distanced second place Chicago South Shore 61½-45.

In the Class A meet, Mahomet-Seymour won the team championship with a 38-35 edging of Chicago University High. Freeburg finished tenth. Madison did not score.

For Lincoln, the turning point was the Granite City South Girls Invitational last month. East St. Louis Senior's Flyerettes edged the defending state champions in that meet. After that one at Granite South, we said, "Let's make sure we are the state champions," said Tigerette Jackie Joyner. "That way, nobody could say we are second to anybody. That stopped us in the middle of our victory lap at Granite and that hurts."

At the South meet, a mistake in addition cost the title for Lincoln. Originally, the Tigerettes were given the win. But before they could finish their victory lap, it was announced that East St. Louis Senior had actually won.

Lincoln's long jump-hurdle-relay punch gave it the championship. Gwen Brown finished first in the 100 and 200 meter dashes. Terri Smith was second and seventh in the same events.

Jackie Joyner failed to defend her state title in the 400 meter run when she finished a dismal tenth in the preliminaries.

In the Class A meet, none of the Madison athletes that advanced made it past the semifinals.

Terri Smith was third in the qualifying round of the 200 meter dash. The Trojanettes 400 meter relay team finished 18th. The 800 meter relay squad was 22nd. Veronica Williams was 26th in the shot put.

Butler double-qualifier

Trojans fifth at Red Bud

RED BUD — Poetic justice, Charlie Steptoe called it.

The Madison Trojans boys track team qualified its 800 meter relay team for next weekend's state meet here Saturday at the Red Bud Class A District meet when it finished second. But it took a twist of fate to do it. The Trojans actually finished third, out of the running. But Freeburg, which actually had the fastest time, was disqualified for accepting the baton out of the exchange zone. So Pinckneyville, which had been second was moved up to first. Madison moved to second and was on its way to Charleston, the site of the state meet.

The 800 relay took place just after Madison's Charles Dixon, who was one of his team's highest hopes in the 100 meter dash, was disqualified for a false start. It was his first false start of the season. "He's really broken up about it," said

Steptoe. "I guess it was just a momentary lapse in concentration. But with the 800 relay thing, I guess it was poetic justice."

Dixon runs the anchor leg on the 800 meter relay team. He'll get his trip to Charleston after all. Madison's time was 1:35.3. Pinckneyville was 1:34.5.

Other members of the relay team for Madison are Terrance Haynes, Keith Edwards and Richard Borney.

Madison finished fifth. Anna-Jonesboro was first with 48 points followed by Pinckneyville, Freeburg and Nashville (standings in scoreboard).

Madison will also send Troy Butler (in the long jump and triple jump) and its mile relay team to state. Butler won the long jump with a leap of 6.25 meters and was second in the triple jump. His distance was 13 meters compared to the winning leap of 13.31 by

Cougars do it again, breeze through field

By TOM SEALS
For the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — It just doesn't seem fair.

Holding the NCAA Division II tennis championships at SIU-Edwardsville is like a fly wrestling a spider in the web. No contest.

The Division II tennis championships didn't turn out to be much of a contest either, as the Cougars won their third straight Division II title. The four day tournament concluded Sunday afternoon on the new courts at the SIU-E campus with Cougar senior Juan Farrow winning his third Division II singles title by defeating teammate Hugo Nunez. He then teamed with Nunez to win the doubles crown.

The matches were anticlimactic, though. SIU-E clinched the team title during play Friday afternoon when they amassed 16 points. One point was awarded for each match won.

The Cougars finished the weekend with 24 points out of a possible 28. Nicholls St. finished second with 12 points, and the University of California-Hayward was third with ten points.

Farrow, the top seed was clearly the class of the tournament. He never lost a set during the weekend, and only sixth seed Tony Mmoh of St. Augustine was able to win as many as four games in one set. In the finals Farrow defeated Nunez 6-3, 6-2.

The path to the finals for third seeded Nunez wasn't as easy. The freshman from Rockaway, N.J., had to defeat second seeded Juan Hidalgo of Nicholls St. in the semi-finals, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1. Nunez trailed 5-2 in the second set before finally getting untracked to win.

Nunez couldn't turn the same trick in the finals, but he wasn't disappointed. "I don't feel bad losing to Juan because I know how good he is. Next year I'll be considered one of the top players in Division II."

SIU-E Coach Kent DeMars also has a high opinion of Farrow. "Juan just always does what he needs to do to win. He keeps the ball in play, and he rarely makes a mistake."

The finals were all SIU-E for the second consecutive year. Last year Farrow lost to teammate Arjun Fernando in the finals. Farrow and Fernando also teamed to win the doubles title last year.

Farrow said the opposition doesn't matter in tournaments. "Sometimes you end up playing your friends or your teammates, and you can't let it bother you. All matches are important to me, but it's also important that the team does well, and I'm glad everyone played so well this weekend."

In the doubles final, Farrow and Nunez had a relatively easy time against Hidalgo and Torbjorn Fasth, winning 6-1, 7-5. The Nicholls St. are duo actually won the first four games of the second set. But from that point on, Farrow and Nunez dominated play, continually driving the ball past their opponents.

Nunez, Farrow, Hidalgo, and Raimo O'Jala will go the Athens, Ga. this weekend to compete in the Division I championships. The four qualified by being semi-finalists in the Division II tournament.

The Cougars other doubles team, O'Jala and Garth Naumoff, will also be competing in Athens this weekend. The pair lost in the doubles semi-finals to Hidalgo-Fasth 6-4, 7-6.

'AA' stars too much for Class 'A', 125-79

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
BELLEVILLE — A funny thing happened on the way to the fourth annual Southwestern Illinois All-Star basketball game. It never really got started. Friday's game in a series highlighted by close, high-scoring contests, was a disappointment. The Class AA stars ran away and with it early and ended up with a hum-hum 125-79 victory at Althoff High School. The game began as if it would actually be exciting. But after the first ten minutes, fans could have gotten more excited watching the popcorn pop in the lobby. Leading by only 24-20 at the end of the first quarter, the Class AA outscored the small school squad 37-18 in the second period and that was that. The victory was the second straight for the Class AA and third overall (in 1978, the game was played on a St. Clair vs. surrounding counties format). But it was by far the most lopsided.

The winners were coached by longtime McKendree College coach Harry Statham. "I really thought it'd be close," he said. "On paper, it looked like a good game."

The Class AA was coached by Belleville Area College coach Jay Harrington. "Whew!" he said after the game, shaking his head. "We just had too many players. I wanted to play everybody at least 10 minutes (out of 40). But that was hard."

No two players found that out more than former Venice standouts Donald Gardner and Kevin Wigfall, both of whom have already signed to play for Harrington at BAC. "You know the guys I probably played the least?" asked Harrington. "The two guys I signed. I really hate that. But we just had too many people."

Understatement. Harrington had 14 players sitting on his bench. Statham had but 10 on his.

But Gardner and Wigfall didn't let it bother them. "We just didn't have a good night," said Gardner. "It's an honor just to play."

While Harrington's head was spinning trying to find the right combination as the game slowly went down the drain, Statham shuffled his 10 players in and out of the game regularly.

As the difference in score added up, the game degenerated into a shoving match. In fact, there were nearly several fights as the big men from each team went at it, with elbows and knees and nearly fists. Acie Fields and Mancel Carter, two big men from Assumption High, did the dirty work for the Class A. Their targets were James Douglas and Walter Jackson from East St. Louis and Bill Mosier from Collinsville.

At one point midway through the fourth quarter, Mosier and Carter stood under the Class A basket and it looked more like the last All-Spinks fight than a basketball game. In fact, Mosier may have been bounced around a little more than anyone else on the 'AA' team. He finally had enough and did a little elbowing back. Now, this was no little guy Mosier was pushing back at. Carter stands 6'8, weighs around 250 and has accepted a scholarship to go to Notre Dame — to play football.

"When somebody starts something, I try to finish it," said Mosier. "I'm not going to let anybody push me around. I don't care who it is."

The Class AA put six players in double figures, compared to only three for the Class A. Ricky Slaughter from East St. Louis Lincoln paced the scoring with 25 points. The 6-1 sparkplug guard hit 11 of 17 shots (and 3 of 4 free throws) before he fouled out late. Douglas and Alton's Troy Washburn each scored 19. The Class A was led in scoring by everything, Eric Watson from Lovejoy High, Watson.

Dawn Ford improving

By CHRIS OCHOA
For the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE

For Dawn Ford of Granite City, competing on the women's track and field team at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is made a little easier, since her home is only a hop, skip—and a jump away from SIUE.

Ford's specialty on the Cougar track team is the long jump, an event she's been competing in since her days at Granite City North High School.

"In my freshman year at North, we didn't have any long jumpers on the team. So, the coach asked me to go over to the pit and try my luck in the event," said Ford.

At that time, the record for the long jump at North was 14 feet. With her first try, Ford surpassed the record, and she's been working on the long jump ever since.

Ford went to the state track tournament her freshman year at North. She explained: "Just for the experience. I didn't really do anything." But in this, her first year at SIUE, she's been having some problems.

"Coach (Lori Stark) and I are trying to figure out what's wrong. When I was in high school, I used to jump about 18 feet all the time. Now, I'm only jumping 14 or 15 feet. So, she's got me running the 440s and the mile relay," said Ford. Apparently, working on other events is helping Ford keep her mind off her problems in the long jump. In the Millikin Invitational at Decatur, held April 30, Ford won the long jump with a jump of 15'4".

"It's not a real long distance, but Dawn's coming along," Coach Stark said.

Ford, a biological sciences major, came to SIUE because it was close to home. Assessing the team as a whole, she explained that "one of the Cougars' problems this season has been our long list of injuries."

"It seems like every meet, we've had somebody out. We've done really well though we have a small team. But the injuries are still hurting us, especially since we have a small team," said Ford.

What about her own performance? Ford sighed and said: "I just don't know. I jumped real well in high school. It's just like one of the peons. I'm trying real hard. Maybe if I keep working on my time in the 440s," Ford's voice trailed off.

With that first victory under her belt at Decatur, Dawn Ford is, as Lori Stark said, very definitely "coming along."

Steelers have easy time with Wood River

By TOMS CHOCKER
For the Press-Record
WOOD RIVER

You wouldn't have thought Granite City North had a baseball game Thursday. At least not by the actions of the players.

Sitting in the shade under the scoreboard was a baseball game Thursday. At least not by the actions of the players.

Pepper is always a good way to waste time. A new pastime or maybe an old one in talking to girls which had the interest of a few players and the eyes of many. Nevertheless, the Steelers on the field answered the question that was asked so many times by their mates on the bench. "What's the score?"

North shell shocked the Wood River Oilers 14-2. "I think the key to our success," said Steeler head coach Bob Stegemeier, "is that we've had to depend on our top three or four hitters." While Mike Robertson, Dennis Page, Bob Batey and Bob Ford, the Steeler big bats, collected only five hits between them, the remainder of North's line-up binged out 10. "We're getting hits up arm down the line-up," said Stegemeier. "At this point, we didn't have any sure outs." Wood River quickly found out how tough it was to record an out. Dan Patterson and Daren DePew didn't provide any means of support, either. Patterson got three hits and on those three occasions, runners came in to score. A freshman catcher, DePew also got three hits. One was a double and he scored twice.

But the most remarkable fact in the game was that everyone in the starting line-up got a hit—except one. However, the one player that failed to find the gap for a single was Batey. A batter hitting over .500 and the most unlikely candidate. "Batey goes 0-for-5 and we score 14 runs?" said Stegemeier. "That's amazing!"

Another feat was pulled off by Robertson. Getting on base remained a mystery for the senior third baseman. At least for the first three times at bat. But each out was getting harder for Wood River to accomplish. "I'm not really concerned," said Stegemeier. "The way we're hitting, we have other players to make up the difference. When Mike does get on base, he makes things happen. I just hope he gets hot at the right time."

Robertson did get hot at the right time against the Oilers. He added to a 7-0 advantage with a shot in the fifth. A two-run shot to be exact. Robertson unloaded with a home run. An inside the park, so to speak. You see, Wood River's field lacks an outfield fence, so the ball just kept rolling and rolling. "I got mad," said Roby. "It was a curve about waist high. I waited for it and hit it."

The homer rounded out a seven-run outburst, putting

'Big Daddy' looking forward to Nationals

GRANITE CITY — Don "Big Daddy" Garlits, of Tampa, Florida, plans an early arrival in St. Louis for his attempt at winning the American Hot Rod Association's Gateway Nationals at St. Louis International Raceway, May 30, 31, and June 1. When contacted at his Florida home, Don stated, "I'm pleased to return to St. Louis, and I consider this event one of the most important in my racing career."

Garlits, who has just completed the most successful year in his career, will be trying for an unprecedented third straight AHRA World Championship. The competition for the Top Fuel eliminator championship. The competition for the Top Fuel eliminator championship at St. Louis will be intense. Garlits won the 1979 event, and he won five of the seven Grand American Top Fuel Championships. His only loss after St. Louis was to Shirley Muldowney at the Grand Nationals in Cleveland, Ohio. One week later, Don claimed revenge at the AHRA Summer Nationals in Kansas City by defeating Shirley in the final round.

Miss Muldowney has stated that she feels that she has the racing equipment and the driving expertise to unseat "Big Daddy" from his long reign as King of the Top Fuel dragsters. Other leading candidates for Top Fuel honors are Frank Bradley of Napa, CA; Dick LaHale from Lansing, Michigan; Tom Donahue of Oklahoma City, OK; Bill Selley from Lawrence, KS; Fred Snavely of Wichita, KS; and many, many others.

For a period of 20 years, Don Garlits has dominated Top Fuel drag racing. Garlits is now 48 years of age, and he is still as competitive in this stage of his career as he was 21 years ago when he won the AHRA Nationals in Great Bend, Kansas. Don Garlits has earned several million dollars competing in this sport of drag racing. He is a multi-millionaire and has many interests other than drag racing.

Steamers sign Carl Rose

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Steamers announced today the signing of MISL All-Star defender Carl Rose to a multi-year contract. Rose was captain of the Steamers this past year and in addition to his outstanding defensive play he scored 15 goals and added 5 assists.

General Manager Tracey Letiweke announced that Carl would join the Steamers immediately and would take up year-round residence in St. Louis. "We wanted very much to have at least one player available to the St. Louis Community for clinics and appearances on a year-round basis, and Carl was an obvious choice," said Letiweke. "We have appointed Carl to the position of Director of Community Relations and his objective during the off-season will be to go out into the community and help in any way he can with clinics, appearances, speaking engagements and other events. The St. Louis Community has given the Steamers great support during their first year and we want to reciprocate."

Rose, 27 years old, hails from London, England originally, and moved with his family to Canada when he was 15 years old. He was selected to play on both the Canadian National Team and Olympic team before signing with the New York Arrows in the MISL's inaugural season. "I'm very pleased to be back in St. Louis, it's where I wanted to be," said Rose. "I'm really looking forward to working in the St. Louis Community this summer, helping kids the same way many people helped me when I was young."

The victory gave the Steelers 20 wins on the season, which equals their output of a year ago. "We've won 20 games now," said Stegmeyer. "That's as many as we won after the playoffs last year. So you can see, we're doing something right."

The best players from each squad will join forces this Wednesday night at Collinsville High's Fletcher Gym to do battle with the Missouri (St. Louis) All-Stars. A girls' game will begin at 7 p.m., with the boys' contest beginning immediately after.

Mize second

EDWARDSVILLE — Leo Jim Mize is an outstanding practitioner of the new sport of power lifting.

Mize, an engineering student in the Graduate School at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, finished second last week at the Illinois State Collegiate power lifting championships, held at the University of Illinois, Chicago Circle, in the 198-pound division.

His second place finish came on the power-lifted total of 1,460 pounds. That total came on three lifts as follows: — 525 pounds on the squat, — 385 pounds on the bench, — 550 pounds on the dead-lift.

That 395 pounds on the bench-lift set a new Illinois collegiate record. The 26-year-old Mize, who earned a B.S. in physical education and a minor in mathematics at SIUE, became interested in power lifting while "fooling around" at the YMCA at Alton and at the Spartan Health Club in Wood River.

Mize regrets that the Olympics are in danger of not being held this year. He feels that the Russians and East European countries "are the main reasons why power lifting hasn't been added to the games."

He explained that the Russians and their next door neighbor "are the main reasons why power lifting hasn't been added to the games."

Alemond's not bothered

By NANCY WEIL
 For the Press-Record
 EDWARDSVILLE — It doesn't bother Pat Alemond that she has never come in first while competing in middle distance events for the women's track and field team at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Although she holds the school record in the 800-yard run and has consistently bettered her times, finishing first is just not Alemond's style.

"I always try to finish second," she said during a break at a recent track meet hosted by SIU-Carbondale. By staying behind the leader, Alemond can let the pace be set, rather than setting it herself. "I'd rather let someone else set the pace. I might set it too fast," she said.

The junior from Highland has competed in track at SIUE for two years now. She set out last year in order to give softball a try and take a break from the strain of running every day. She started training during the summer break and found the desire to compete in track was still very much alive. Although she had eligibility remaining in track, Alemond doesn't think that she will ever become the pace setter in her events. "I just haven't had that kind of a runner," she said. Part of Alemond's attitude could very easily come from the philosophy of the women's track and field program, which is basically individual betterment working toward the state tournament.

But now the team has an assistant, Sam Nesbit, who works with the women who compete in middle and long distance events while Coach Lori Stark tutors the sprinters.

"Sam pushes us," said Alemond. "He knows a lot, and he's told me to set my own pace. Eventually, I'll work around to it." Right now, Alemond is concerned with setting goals instead of paces. Before the meets, she decides how much to try to improve her old times.

"I try to get a little off my time each time I run," she said. Indeed, Alemond has consistently succeeded in that goal. At Carbondale, she set a new school record in the 800-yard run and took a full three seconds off the old record (which she set) by finishing at 2:20.3 in third place.

Setting goals seems to help Alemond, but as the time for competing nears, nervousness hits her. "I get nervous at every meet. Which I guess is kind of good. I just wish my events were first. If I don't have to wait, I don't have time to think about it," she said. The nervousness leaves once she sets herself on the starting line. "Then I start to think about the person ahead of me and trying to catch her. It's hard for me to push myself unless there is a lot of competition," she said. As she runs, Alemond claims that her mind goes blank. "I just don't think about anything when I run," she said. One thing she would like to think about is eventually coming in first. "I'd like to finish first. That would be great. But I'm still mostly concerned with getting my times down."

Alemond's attitude has created a type of runner who can't be questioned, especially when she consistently finishes in the top three with a new record.
